

INVITATION

The Senior Liberals' Commission of the Liberal Party of Canada invites your attendance at its Biennial General Meeting to be held on January 13, 2012 at the hour of 8:00 am.

Rooted in the tradition of Canadian Liberalism, the Liberal Party of Canada undertook, some years ago, to develop a special facility within the Party, the Senior Liberals' Commission of Canada to recognize the vast resource of knowledge and experience possessed by Seniors as a result of lifelong experiences, to identify issues, and to develop policies which impact on their quality of living. At the same time, while realizing Seniors do vote and contribute significantly as taxpayers, consumers and volunteers, to encourage them to be more active in the business of our Nation, the affairs of the Party and in other facets of society.

This is your Commission if you are a member of the Liberal Party of Canada and have reached the age of 65. No other national political party in Canada has elected a Seniors' Commission to provide the unique opportunity for Seniors to participate in the Canadian political process. Its success is up to you.

This Biennial meeting in Ottawa comes at an important time for Seniors. Critical services are under attack throughout the nation. Our numbers are growing and our needs including physical, mental and spiritual, are increasing. However, the support systems to provide quality care are inadequate. Seniors' expectations are that a quality health care system and social networks will be available to all Canadians as we age. We have a sincere desire to leave our many contributions to the Party as a legacy to our up and coming young voters who will someday replace us.

Your Commission wants your advice. The Liberal Party of Canada needs your participation. We, as Seniors, need to make sure that we are heard and heeded as we revitalize our beloved Liberal Party. We have structured an agenda for you to tell us what you want the Liberal Party of Canada to do to meet your expectations and the challenges of the 21st Century within a framework of traditional Liberal values and principles. Equally important, we need to examine our role within the Party and determine how Seniors can more actively fulfill our mandate within each EDA throughout Canada.

All members of the Liberal Party of Canada are welcome to attend.

Please join us at this important meeting. The agenda is attached.
